

FACULTY ELIGIBILITY

Only UCSD Faculty are eligible to sponsor (serve as instructor of record) undergraduate research for academic credit. As such, faculty sponsoring a BILD 99, BISP 196 or BISP 199 must fall within the definition provided by the Academic Personnel Manual 110-4(15) (<http://www.ucop.edu/acadpersonnel/apm/apm-110.pdf>):

(15) Faculty

A member of the faculty of the University is an academic appointee in a School, College, Division, Department, or Program of instruction and research who has independent responsibility for conducting approved regular University courses for campus credit. As an exception, students in a UC degree program who teach independently within their discipline are not considered faculty. Members of the faculty are individuals appointed to the following titles or series and include those recalled to active service.

NOTES:

- Any request to use Division of Biological Sciences undergraduate teaching lab space and equipment for non-instructional related activities, (i.e., research projects) will be denied.
- If a faculty in the LPSOE/LSOE series and/or faculty in the Professorial Series without independent research laboratory space can document the following, an academic credit project may be approved:
 - Individual has a teaching title
 - He or she has independent research funding and a lab space with another faculty or research scientist; or
 - Another faculty or research scientist agrees to provide both funding for reagents plus wet lab space, to allow a student to conduct individual mentored research for academic credit.
